

Study Description

The Idaho 55 Corridor Study will result in a corridor plan for 134 miles of highway in six counties from New Meadows to Marsing.

The plan will:

- Guide roadway policies and projects for the next 20 years.
- Be based on community input, engineering studies and city county goals.

